- 25X1A 3. [] Comment. All troop trains reported in paragraphs 2 and 3 were previously 25X1 observed or confirm the statements of the two sources alternately. The troop train [] to Altengrabow probably carried artillery units of the 1st Mecz Div which were previously observed by another source at the Doeberitz railroad station.
- 25X1A 4. [] Comment. Probably a troop train with contingents of the 9th Gds Tank Div.
- 25X1A 5. [] Comment. On 9 July 1953, the arrival of new troops at the airfield was reported by another source. The components of the 6th Gds Mecz Div previously stationed at the barracks installation in Bad Freien-walde probably were transferred to Strausberg airfield on 15 and 16 July 1953.
- 25X1A 6. [] Comment. Prior to 8 July 1953, the barracks installation in Fuerstenwalde 25X1A were still occupied by rather large components of the 7th Gds Mecz Div. See [] though no indications are available, it is possible that these units were to be transferred from Fuerstenwalde to the East Berlin area.
